

Nantha Kishore

VIDEO JOURNALIST

Skills Summary

Narrative non-fiction
Script writing
Cinematography
Documentary photography
Video Editing and colour grading
Basic motion graphics

Educational History

Indian Institute of Mass Communication

Jun 2017 - Apr 2018

PG Diploma in English Journalism

Faculty of Arts and Science, SRM College

Jun 2014 - Mar 2017, Bachelor of Arts

BA Journalism and Mass Communication

Work Experience

Multimedia Producer, Asiaville News

(DEC 2019- FEB 2020)- New Delhi

- Shot, edited, and produced various news stories and short-documentaries on a weekly basis.

Freelance Video Journalist, Various Clients

(DEC 2017-DEC 2019)

Pawns of Progress (Nov 2019)

- Was part of an independent documentary about the plight of Indian farmers from an economic model perspective. In post-production.

StoriesAsia (Oct 2019)

- Produced a short documentary on a group of people who manage an app called 'Kadhal Aran' which helps couples who face the threat of honour killing in rural Tamil Nadu.

OZY (May 2019- Aug 2019)

- Shot and edited a five-minute short documentary on Dr. K. Padmarajan, who according to Guinness Book of World Records is 'the most unsuccessful living candidate in elections in the world'. The video has got around 3 Lakh views on YouTube.

National Geographic- Out of Eden Walk (Jun 2018- Dec 2018)

- Documented the National Geographic Out of Eden Walk workshops conducted by Pulitzer award winning journalist Paul Salopek for young Indian journalists in three Indian cities. Was an attendee of the inaugural workshop in Delhi, May 2018.

The Diplomat (Apr 2018- Jan 2019)

- Short documentary on old Delhi's last calligrapher, child labour in Sisola- a small village in Uttar Pradesh that relies on stitching footballs for livelihood, an explainer video about the draft Menstruation Benefits Bill of 2017 are some of the videos produced for the Diplomat magazine.

www.nanthakishore.com

nanthugk@gmail.com

@nantha_kishore